Accidental Astronaut by Kaylee Webb (Knob Noster Middle School)

Ever since his father's spaceship was knocked off course by a rogue asteroid, Colin Powell has been obsessed with space. He dreams of becoming an astronaut one day—but only if he can survive the class bullies, whose sole function in life seems to be making Colin's life miserable. Naturally, when Colin's class takes a field trip to NASA, he's the first in line with his permission slip signed and bags packed. He is super excited to learn more about space and maybe even help NASA find his father. Little does Colin know that this field trip is about to turn into the adventure of a lifetime. When his tormentors' cruelty reaches new heights, and Colin is knocked unconscious, he wakes to find himself somewhere he never imagined he would be...and he's not alone. Will Colin discover where he is, and more importantly, will he figure out a way to get back home? Will he find his father and be reunited with his mother, or will he himself be lost forever?

The Path by Jenna Berislavich (Knob Noster Elementary)

Forced to wander the streets, begging for places to sleep and scavenging from other people's trash, Clairs and her best friend Kelsey must rely on their wits, the kindness of strangers, and each other to stay alive. After years of living off the land, they came across and out-of-the-way school- one that just might change everything forever. The girls make a new friend, Liam, and meet a very special teacher who just might be the answer to their prayers. In hopes of ending their aimless wandering and being adapted, they stay close to Liam, and together they set off to investigate an exciting new discovery. But why is there a mysterious path behind their new friend's house, and where does it lead? Why is there a creepy abandoned barn in the middle of nowhere, and what happened to the people who lived there? And most importantly, have the two girls finally found their forever home...or are they destined to wander the streets forever?
